INTRODUCTION

It is worrying that cases on sexual abuse and harassment among children have been on a rise lately. According to Utusan newspaper, there are a total of 5052 cases of this category that was recorded from year 2013 until 2017. This sexual abuse and harassment can affect a child's psychological growth and lead to negative development from childhood to their adult stage. On top of that, this problem has always been done silently and rarely known until it becomes worst and serious. Therefore, children are the most affected victims that may experience traumatised due to this act because they are always known as innocent individuals who will later grow up to be as what being expected by the parents and so do the community surround them.

Therefore, Sexual Abuse Defense (SAD) Kit that consists of a book, telephone applications and exercises which include several activities is prepared based on the children's understanding in conjunction to help prevent this abused issue to be spread. In addition to that, exhibitions and talks will also be given to the children who involve in this project.

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this project are as stated below:

1. To provide the opportunity to the university students in performing social responsibilities to the community especially children.
2. To help reduce and prevent the number of aggressive sexual abuse and harassment cases.
3. To create the awareness among children that sexual abuse and harassment should not happen to them.
4. To aid the abused and harassed children to voice out their rights on the proper channel.
